How a Woman Suffers.

Howell, Ind., Nov. 26. I will always praise Wine of Cardui It has done me more good than all the medi-cines I have ever taken in my lafe. Please send a book about temals diseases to the ladies whose names I enclose.

It isn't necessary for a woman to give particulars. When she says she has "female troubles", other women know what that means. It means days and nights of endless suffering. It means headaches which no tongue can describe. It means that terrible bearing and dragging down in the lower abdomen. It means agonizing backache, and shoulder ache, and arm ache, and aches in the lower limbs. It means nerves on edge-the blues-despondency and loss of hope. It means debilitating drains that the doctors call leucorrhoea. It means martyrdom-sometimes even death seems preferable. And still Wine of Cardui will utterly
